A little bit about us:

Tony is our head beekeeper and comes from a family of beekeepers! Both of his Grandfathers were also beekeepers, back in the days when the only protection you wore was a veil! Tony has inherited their pioneering spirit and love of bees. He runs our 100 hives, providing mentoring and educational programs for the community.

If you are interested in bees! or would just like to try something different, perhaps even learn something new - come along for a visit...

We can not wait to introduce you to our beautiful bees!
